Kecak Dance

With this stunning scenery, we will watch the sun go down during one of the most unique Balinese dances, the Kecak Dance. This dance is also known as the "monkey chant" dance and uses a means of fire. Kecak was originally a trance ritual accompanied by male chorus. They create a dance based on ancient traditions and take sanghyang from parts Ramayana story. Kecak is a form of Balinese music drama, originated in the 1930s and is performed primarily by men, and only a few women's. What makes the Kecak special is that the accompanying music is provided by the human voice, the gamelan suara, a choir of a hundred men or more sitting in concentric circles, swaying, standing up, lying prone as the story develops. Amongst the swaying masses the voices of the storytellers can be heard telling the unfolding tale.
